GOSSIP OF FRATERNAL CIRCLES

Waterman, and George A. Talbott.
Howard Linton, George A. Anthony.
V. S. Marion, Joseph T. Parks, William H. McCarty, Earl E. Everhart.
Posey V. Hall George Duval James
E. Nyman, Charles J. Kropke, John
H. Lippard, J. Russell Rice, Jesse
Newton H. B. Homes, N. D. Nor. er, had also had an important part in the work, and acted as toastmas-ter at the oyster feast. Those in charge of the oyster feast were fenior Warden Cooke, George F. Hoover, A. Ernest Tate, James E. Nyman, David Fulton and Sherman ment was a burlesque on the suffrage pickets. Six lodge members, dressed in female attire, represented the pick-ets while I. S. Goldsmith and James McCarthy, respectively, acted the banners on which were characteristic inscriptions, such as "Kaiser Kahn, you preach equality. Equality be-gins at home. We demand the right to become Master Masona." "If the men are as true to 'heir country as they are to their wives, God help the U. S. A." For bearing banners of this character, the Suffs were ar rested by Officer McCarthy and haled before his honor, Judge Goldsmith, who upon receiving their pleas of guilty sentenced them to long terms in the workhouse. At this juncture, one of the Suffs whispered something in the ear of his honor, which caused him to reverse his decision and turn with vehemence to Officer McCarthy. whom be sentanced to life-time in on police court, Harry Nusinov did a black-face female stunt that con-vulsed all present with laughter. Milton Fillius, Charles A. Stevens and Jacques Heidensheimer entertained with classic songs and jokes. The Fraternity Band furnished music for the this occasion was one of the largest in the history of Masonic functions in this jurisdiction. Many officers and privates of the army and navy were present, and enjoyed themselves

Stansbury Lodge will have charge of the religious services at the Masonic and Eastern Star Home next Sunday, October 14, at 3 o'clock. Bev. Brother Edgar Condell Power will conduct the services.

et the cars at Georgia avenue and Rittenhouse street.

To reach the Home take Ninth street cars marked Takoma Park or Forest Glen, get off at Rittenhouse street and go four squares east. At the next convocation of Capitol

Chapter, No. 11, R. A. M., next Friday, the P. M. and M. E. M. degrees will be conferred. It is earnestly requested that there be a good at-tendance on that occasion.

At the last convocation the chan-Orville Drown, and Grand Scribe F. F. Major, of the Grand Chapter, R. A. M.

the work was rushed to enable all present to get down to the banquet hall at an early hour, where an oyster feast, prepared by the captain of the degree team, was served, and an entertainment under the direction of Charles A. Stevens, director of the Grotto Glee Club, and Past Master James S. McCarthy was enjoyed until the hour of low twelve.

Those who took part in the degree work were Past Masters Leonard P. Steuart, Evander French and Jason Waterman, and George A. Anthony, V. S. Marion, Joseph T. Parks, William H. McCarty, Earl E. Everhart, Ilam H. McCarty, Earl E. Everhart, Posey V. Hall George Duval James

ing to dance with all the ladies pres-ent. The time was far too short, however, and although he danced every number, changing partners fre-quently, there were many still wait-ing for a dance when the orchestra ing for a dance when the orchestra played "Home Sweet Home" for the closing number. Monarch I. S. Gold-smith, Chief Justice A. H. Rogers, and Master of Ceremonies Charles D. Shackelford were also in attendance and assisted in welcoming and en-tertaining the guests. Maj. M. S. Boehm of the 163d Battalion, Cana-dian forces, recently returned from France, delivered a short lecture in explanation of a number of pictures exhibited depicting war scenes in France and Flanders. Prophet A. H. Staples announced a second dance of the Drill Corps to be held on Hailothe Drill Corps to be held on Hallo-ween. This is to be a costume dance to which the public will be invited. During the evening favors were dis-tributed and prizes awarded to Mr. R. Eisinger and Miss Gertrude Con-way, Mr. W. F. Leimberg and Miss Houck, Mr. L. R. Watts and Miss Lloyd.

on Centennial Lodge Saturday even ing of last week several members of Kallipolis Grotto contributed to the program which followed the regular lodge meeting. Monarch I. S. Gold-smith presided as "Judge" in a court trial of militant suffragettes, while Prophets Charles A. Stevens, director of the Grotto Glee Club; Jacque Heidenheimer and Milton Fillius produced a skit which consisted ongs, jokes and dialogue in Italian

On Tuesday evening last Grand to the members of the Florists Club of Washington, Odd Fellows.

As a finale these entertain-

Monday-Union, No. 11; Beacon, No. 15, and angdon, No. 25, business.
Tuesday-Amity, No. 27, degree; Golden Rule, anguon, No. 22, degree; Golden Rule, 10. 21, business. Wednesday—Eastern, No. 7, degree; Harmony, No. 9, and Federal City, No. 29, business; Covenant, No. 13, grand visitation. Thursday—Columbia, No. 10, degree; Excellior, No. 11; Salem, No. 22, and Phoenix, No. 24, business.

Friday-Central, No. 1, business; Odd Fellow Breet northwest, ENCAMPMENTS,

ENGAMPARDAYA,
Tuesday-Fred D. Stuart, No. 7, business.
PATRIARCHS MILITANT.
Saturday-Canton Washington, No. 1, social.

accompanied by the officers of the Grand Lodge, will officially visit Cove nant Lodge, No. 13, on Thursday evening. The visitation will take place in their lodge room, 1073 Thirty-first street northwest. The regular quarterly meeting of the Odd Fellows' Home Association will be held at the home building, 2233 N street northwest, on Friday evening at 7:30 p. m. The considera-tion of the unpaid pledges will be one of the matters to come before the association at this meeting. The board ter was honored with the presence new steam heating plant, which is of Grand High Priest W. W. Jernow in operation and in addition of directors have recently installed a many other minor improvements have been made to the interior of

By Patronizing These Merchants

Who Make Deliveries Through

ACo-operative Delivery

And Thereby Cut Delivery

Costs to the Minimum.

livery service eventually costs the consumer from 2 to 4 per cent as the price he must pay on merchandise so delivered. These merchants, by means of a co-operative delivery, cut this

Merchants if You Would Learn How Co-operative Delivery Aids

WALFORD, D. N.—Jewelry and Sporting Goods, 909 Penna. Avenue. LADIES' CAPITAL HAT SHOP—508 11th Street.

as well as the original cost price of the store merchandise.

cost to approximately ONE-HALF OF ONE PER CENT.

GOLDENBERG'S—The Dependable Store, 7th and K Streets.
KING'S PALACE—Department Store, 810 7th Street.
ROBINSON, J. E.—Music, 1306 G Street.
S. & H.—5c, 10c and 25c Store, 818 7th Street.
HIRSH SHOE STORES—1026-28 7th Street.
KRESGE 5c AND 10c STORE—11th and G Streets N. W.
SICMIND'S Suit and Hat Shop 736 7th Street

SIGMUND'S—Suit and Hat Shop, 736 7th Street. GAMOND CO.—Ladies' Specialties, 402 7th Street. MORRISON PAPER CO.—1009 Penna. Avenue.

Adler & Son, shors, 706 7t hat, nw.; Estelle S. Andrews, millinery, 1115 G at, nw.; Associated Drug Store, 7th and G sta, nw.; Castelberg's, iswelers, 805 Pa. ave.; D. Derzavits,

Store prices depend upon the store's operating expenses

The Council of National Defense estimates that private de-

Watch the Low Prices in the Advertisements of These

The Grotto.

Kallipolis Grotto will begin its fall and winter program with a business meeting at Chamber of Commerce hall on October 18. At this meeting a few matters of routine business will be transacted, followed by the initiation of cancidates and social feature. the most successful affair pulled off in the Masonic Temple in many years. The M. M. degree was conferred by members of the lodge bowing league and degree team under the direction of Past Master Leonard P. Steuart, and Worshipful Master Kahn is loud in his praises of the splendid manner in which the work was done by the men, many of whom never before took part in conferring degrees.

The chairman of the church service committee of the grand lodge, Grand Chaplain Henry S. Petty, announces that arrangements have been made for the grand lodge and members of the order, including all members of the splendid manner in which the with a ceremonfai to be held in November. As soon as arrangements between completed announcement will be made as to the date and of that branch of the order, to attend services on Sunday evening, November 4, at the Congregational Church, Tenth and G streets northwest, when a special sermon will be delivered by the pastor, Rev. James L. Gordon.

The Odd Fellows' Bowling League will commence the games for the season tomorrow evening. The first game will be played between Metropolis, No. 16, and Columbia, No. 1, followed by Harmony, No. 9, and Mount Pleasant on Tuesday evening; Beacon and Central on Wednesday and Eastern and Amity on Thursday. President W. E. Lawson requests each lodge to have the full team present when the game is called.

Grand Master Irving R. Schwinger and his corps of associate officers officially visited Mount Pleasant Lodge at their last meeting. A large number of members and visitors were present to greet Grand Master Schwinger at his first fall visitation. The officers his first fall visitation. The officers of the lodge conferred the initiatory degree upon a candidate for the bene-fit of the grand lodge representatives. Vice Grand H. P. Burroughs, Warden Frank Roller, Conductor R. B by Grand Representatives W. W. Mil-lan and John H. Wood. At the con-clusion of the examination, Mr. Millan delivered an address on the work of the sovereign grand lodge session from which he had recently returned. bership during the term,

At the last meeting of Federal City Lodge, No. 20, the second degree was postponed until next meeting night and the time was devoted to drilling jurisdiction and Maryland were pres-ent and a short address was given by Past Grand Schumacker. Noble Grand Rambo urged that all Noble Grand Rambo urged that all members who had made pledges to the Home Fund please attend to this matter at their earliest cor legree will be presented.

THE REBEKAH DEGREE. Monday-Esther Lodge, No. 5, degree. Tuesday-Sixty-eighth anniversary e

Priday—Doreas, No. 4, business, Priday—Doreas, No. 4, business, Saturday—Ladies' Auxiliary, Canton Washin

Chairman of the Sixty-sixth Anni versary Committee, Vice President Mrs. Flora O. Schwinger, of the Re-bekah Assembly, announces that all hold the exercises in Pythian Temple on Tuesday evening. Hon. C. C. Dill, a member of the House of Represent-atives, and one of the active memers of the order in the State of Washington, will deliver the address of the evening. Miss Viola Schippert will sing a solo and several other musical numbers will be rendered.

Deer Lodge No. 4 will hold its regular meeting on Friday evening, when plans will be approved for the en-tertainment of the members of the odge at each session after the work of the lodge has been concluded dur-ing the remainder of the term. The committe having charge of the entertainment will present at the close of each meeting a short pro-gram including many new features. The winter Heart Socials will com-

At the close of the meeting a re-ception and dance will be given.

R. A. M.

Grand High Priest Jermane delivered a most interesting and instructive address, which was enjoyed by all present.

The Booster Club of Federal City lodge, No. 20, headed by Noble Grand Rambo, will pay a fraternal visit to Beacon Lodge tomorrow evening. It is expected that many members of the team has been reorganized and held many rehearsals and at the meeting tomorrow will put on the degree in a splendid manner. It is expected that many members and visitors will be present to witness the work of the

The Ladles' Auxiliary of Canton Washington No. 1 will hold the first fall meeting on Saturday evening, October 13, at the temporary headquarters of the Odd Fellows, Ninetenth street and Pennsylvania avenue northwest. President Mrs. Laura E. B. McChesney desires every member to be present, as plans will be submitted for the winter's entertainments and socials. Practice True Economy

Knights of Pythias.

LODGES.

Monday-Decatur, No. 9, and Calanthe, No. Monay-Decade, No. 7; Excelsior, No. 14; Capital, No. 24, and Myrtle, No. 25, business. Union, No. 35, and Hermione, No. 12, business; Union, No. 22, grand ristation; Columbia, No. 25, business. Friday-Syracusians, No. 10, and Rathbone-Superior, No. 29, business. UNIFORM RANK.

Wednesday-Washington Company, No. 1, regular assembly.

thr assembly.
WAYS AND MEANS COMMITTEE,
Saturday-Semi-monthly meeting. Saturday-Semi-monthly meeting.
PYTHIAN SISTERS.
Wednesday-Friendship Temple, No. 9,

Friday-Rathbone Temple, No. 8, business.

The second visitation of the fall series will be made to Union Lodge, No. 22, Wednesday night by Grand Chancellor Melick and associate grand lodge officers. The annual official visit to Franklin Lodge, No. 2. Thursday night showed, by the officers' reports that the oldest Pythian lodge in the world was still actively engaged in the Pythian duty, and the addresses of the was still actively engaged in the Pythian duty, and the addresses of the grand chancellor, other grand lodge officers, pioneer members of the order, and visitors made the first grand visitation of the fall series a very successful one. The complete roster of grand lodge officers, headed by F. H. Melick, grand chancellor, follows: James N. Kline, grand vice chancellor: Charles W. Henderson, grand prelate; Henry J. Gasson, grand keeper of records and seal; Frank B. Crown, grand master of exchequer; Perry P. Patrick, grand master at arms; Frederick Yates, grand inner guard; J. F. Skidmore, grand outer guard; E. W. Heiss, grand lecturer; Thomas E. Landon, John R. Haskins, W. R. Carver, grand trustees; Mark Stearman, Albert Kahlert, supreme representatives. ZIMMERMAN'S—Millinery, 1111 G Street.

GROSNER'S—Representing the House of Kuppenheimer, 1013 Pa. Ave. SISMAN COHN CO.—Furriers and Ladies' Wear, 12th and G Streets. LOWDERMILK & CO.—Books, 1420 F Street N. W. KAUFMAN, D. J.—The Man's Store, 1005-7 Penna. Avenue. O'DONNELL'S DRUG STORES.

Adler & Son, shocs, 706 ft hat nw.; Estelle
S. Andrews, millinery, III5 G at nw.; Associated Drug Store, 7th and G sta. nw.; Castelberg's, iswelers, 305 Fz. are.; D. Derravitz, hardware, 613-fth st.; Eiseman Brox., 506 fth st.
and 1895 Fz. are.; Percy S. Foster, everything missical, ISO G st.; Friedlander Brox., 10thiers and baberdashers, 62 Mh st.; Ganse Oc.,
swelly, ISO G st.; Friedlander Brox., 10thiers
and baberdashers, 62 Mh st.; Ganse Oc.,
swelly, ISO F st.; I. Haas & Co., tallors, III
Fz. are, 18. Harris, leweler, 201 Ft st.; N. Heas' Sons, benchmade footwear, 301 Fz. are.; Howrid &
Dean, in-porters, 130 F st.; Irving Hat Company, Hats That Top Them All, 90 Fz. are.;
Charles Kaufman & Son. Gi Ilh st.; H. Baufman, The Store for Thrifty People, IN6 fth st.;
Klein's Korner, men's wear, 7th and E sts.;
Wolfs Walk-over Shoe Shop, 130 F st. nw.; Wolfs Walk-over Shoe Shop, 130 F st. nw.;
Wolfs Walk-over Shoe Shop, 130 F st. nw.;
Wolfs Walk-over Shoe Shop, 130 F st. nw.;
Wolfs Walk-over Shoe Shop, 130 F st. nw.;
Wolfs Walk-over Shoe Shop, 130 F st. nw.;
Wolfs Walk-over Shoe Shop, 130 F st. nw.;
Wolfs Walk-over Shoe Shop, 130 F st. nw.;
Wolfs Walk-over Shoe Shop, 130 F st. nw.;
Wolfs Walk-over Shoe Shop, 130 F st. nw.;
Wolfs Walk-over Shoe Shop, 130 F st. nw.;
Wolfs Walk-over Shoe Shop, 130 F st. nw.;
Wolfs Walk-over Shoe Shop, 130 F st. nw.;
Wolfs Walk-over Shoe Shop, 130 F st. nw.;
Wolfs Walk-over Shoe Shop, 130 F st. nw.;
Wolfs Walk-over Shoe Shop, 130 F st. nw.;
Wolfs Walk-over Shoe Shop, 130 F st. nw.;
Wolfs Walk-over Shoe Shop, 130 F st. nw.;
Wolfs Walk-over Shoe Shop, 130 F st. nw.;
Wolfs Walk-over Shoe Shop, 130 F st. nw.;
Wolfs Walk-over Shoe Shop, 130 F st. nw.;
Wolfs Walk-over Shoe Shop, 130 F st. nw.;
Wolfs Walk-over Shoe Shop, 130 F st. nw.;
Wolfs Walk-over Shoe Shop, 130 F st. nw.;
Wolfs Walk-over Shoe Shop, 130 F st. nw.;
Wolfs Walk-over Shoe Shop, 130 F st. nw.;
Wolfs Walk-over Shoe Shop, 130 F st. nw.;
Wolfs Walk-over Shoe Shop, 130 F st. nw.;
Wolfs Walk-over Shoe Shop, 130 F st. nw.;
Wol

Royal Neighbors of America Plans were made at the meeting of Fidelic Camp on Friday night for a class adoption of candidates. No defiing with a subcommittee of three members. The grand chancellor is in receipt of strong letters of indorse-ment for the Home Lodge project from Gen. Fred E. Wheaton, supreme teeper of records and seal.

Webster Lodge, No. 7, was addressed at its convention Tuesday night by Past Grand Chancellor Dickman and others on Pythian subjects.

Mr. Dickman outlined the purposes of the Home Lodge, and stated that the grand chancellor would proceed at grand chancellor would proceed at Past Great Section G. P. Laborator Lodge and Laborator Lodge and Section G. P. Laborator Lodge and Sectio grand chancellor would proceed at once with its institution. G. L. Thomas, of Akron, Ohio., a member of Akron Lodge, now employed at the Navy Yard in this city, gave an inspiring talk on Pythian work in his home State and spring take on Pythian work in his home State and received an enthusi-astic reception. A. Witkowski, of Lake Providence, La., of Providence Lodge, No. 28, received a royal wel-come and gave a splendid message

Reports indicate that definite plans have been perfected for further per-manent organization of Uniform Rank companies in Southern States, the Northern States having been active in establishing this branch for several years. In Florida eight flourishing the First Florida Regiment. Virginia is now represented by five companies with several others reported about ready for muster. A battalion was recently formed with Maj. W. R. Brown, of Norfolk, as commander. Georgia reports twelve companies organized into a brigade. Kentucky has a brigade of fifteen companies, and Tennessee has a battalion of four companies. The rank is reported as having been revived in North Carolina, where it has been inactive for several years, and Louisiana and Miseveral years, and Louisiana and Mississippi are reported to be active in recruiting for membership of com-panies already established there. PYTHIAN SISTERS.

Grand Chief Ida M. Crown an-nounces the following committees for the seventh annual session of the Grand Temple of Virginia, and the District of Columbia, which will beheld in Fredericksburg, Va., commencing next Wednesday morning at 30 o'clock. State of the order: Anna Perry, Bet-

State of the order: Anna Perry, Bet-tie Herndon, Mary Boole. Emma By-num; law and superivision: Ethel Daugherty, Inez Armstrong, Sallie Creery, Elsie Vandervort; mileage and per dian: Della Nichols, Florence Bowden, Elizabeth Crowder, Bessie Haffin; appeal, and gradeness. Bowden, Elizabeth Crowder, Bessie Heflin: appeals and grievances; Car-rie Davis, Kate Smith, Rosa Silver, Laura Hicks; returns and credentials: Mary Grant, Margaret Sacrey, Carrie Davis: finance and auditing. Mark Davis; finance and auditing: Mary Mitchell, Sallie Durphy, Mary Grant, Katherine Ritter; charters: Elizabeth Crowder, Adah Kimmel, Inez Arm-strong, Mary Grant; fraternal cor-respondence: Virginia Young, Laura Hicks: resolution Dell' strong, Mary Grant; fraternal cor-respondence: Virginia Young, Laura Hicks; resolutions, Della Cherry, Kate Smith, Julia Hill, Elsie Vandervort; distribution: Lena Wood, Drunette Martin, Annie Sullivan, Katherine Ritter; necrology; Margaret Sacrey, Florence David, Katherine Ritter. Florence David, Katherine Ritter.

Rathbone Temple, No. 8, will be Rathbone Temple, No. 8, will be represented at the grand temple session by Past Chiefs Kate Smith, Florence David and Della M. Nichols. Mrs. Mary E. Mitchell, a past chief of Rathbone Temple is an officer in the grand temple line filling the station of grand junior. The drill team of Rathbone Temple has decided to visit Norfolk, Va., on October 16.

Mrs. Nettie Crowthers, excellent The winter Heart Socials will commence in November. A large numbers of members have recently returned from their vacation and a greater activity is being manifested than during the summer months.

Dorcas Lodge No. 5 will hold its regular meeting tomorrow evening, when the degree will be conferred by the new degree team, under the direction of Past Noble Grand Mrs.

Anna Billings, During the past month the team has been reorganized and held many rehearsals and at the meet, some factors of Friendship Temple will be accompanied on her trip to the session. companied on her trip to the session of the grand temple to be held at Fredericksburg by the following representatives from Friendship Temple:

Mrs. Carrie Davis, Mrs. Annie Sullivan and Mrs. Adah Kimmel.

Modern Woodmen of America.

At the meeting of the Georgetown Camp. No. 12,500, Wednesday even-ing, in the Potomac Bank building. ing, in the Potomac Bank building, plans for the organization of the members of the camp into teams and the holding of membership contests were discussed. Clerk Michael Peter was instructed to prepare a tentative outline of the varioust teams. At the next meeting of the camp the first-degree work of the winter season will be exemplified by the degree team. Remarks were made by gree team. Remarks were made by Consul J. Arthur Trunnel and Clerk Michael Peter.

Consul J. Arthur Trunnel and Clerk Michael Peter.

An enthusiastic meeting of A. R. Talbot Camp, No. 11912, was held Thursday evening in National Capital Bank building, with most of the camps in the District represented among the visitors. Adviser C. S. Thomas presided, with W. F. Black acting as adviser. An additional appropriation for the use of the committee on the celebration of the camp's twelfth anniversary was granted at the request of Chairman F. R. Overbee. The flag drill, with the members' chorus of patriotic songs, was very inspiring. A communication was received from F. F. Mason, formerly adviser of the camp, containing the good news of further advancement in his new work in Chicaso. George Dawson, while on a vacation in West Virginia, was severely injured, and is now confined to his home in Brookland, where he would be glad to see any members. Samuel Hinds, a member by transfer from Brule Camp, No. 1614, talked at length, and remarks were made by State Deputy William McCaffrey, District Deputy Henry H. Millard, Clerk C. E. Miller, and Banker Daniel Webster, of West End Camp; W. H. Cole and Clerk O. B. Bowmen, of Columbia Camp; George A. Casey, of Central Camp, and J. K. Duncan, Burton G. Cowles, and W. F. Black, of Talbot Camp. A most pleasing feature of the evening was the announcement of the reappointment of Henry H. Millard as district deputy, Mr. Millard ard served seven years as consul of A. R. Talbot Camp, and for the past five years has occupied the position to which he has again been appointed. Mr. Millard has been very active in his work for the Modern Woodmen, and is, to a large extent, personally responsible for the steady growth of the order in the District. A musical program—P. Schilke rendering several piano selections and A. F. Dobrowolski contributing vocal solos—concluded the meeting.

portant affairs of the year and add additional impetus to the work of the order, locally, in war emergencies. Past Grand Chancellor H. M. Vandervort, chairman of the subcommittee on arrangements, is planning to make a detailed report to the ways and means committee next Saturday night.

The work of organizing the Home Lodge will be taken up at once, Grand Chancellor Melick announces, and he has appointed Past Grand Chancellor John B. Dickman, chairman of the Booster Committee, in which all the subordinate lodges are participating with a subcommittee of three members for membership were acted. Improved Order of Red Men

The first visitation of the series will take place tomorrow night at Redwing Tribe, No. 20, the "baby tribe" of the reservation, and assurance Past Great Sachem G. P. John-son, of Osage Tribe, is reported dan-gerously ill. A few of the older mem-bers of the order are visiting regu-larly. Past Great Sachem J. Henry Hummer sustained a very painful in-jury to his right arm last week, and was forced to stay at home for a few days.

come and gave a splendid message from Louisiana.

Mount Vernon Lodge, No. 5, reports the reception of a number of applications for membership, with a class iniation in view for a later date.

Past Great Sachem John I. Bunch has returned from a trip to Zanes-ville, Ohio, where he attended the annual session of the Rechabites. From there he went to Chicago to attend the meeting of the American Typotheta convention, and has come back with a lot of new ideas. ack with a lot of new ideas.

H. L. Savage, senior sagamore of Osage Tribe, is being coached in the unwritten work so that he will be efficient when he ascends to the sachem's stump. From current rumors, he will keep things he does take charge.

George E. Altmann has been called to the United States Navy Yard in this city, and from reports he is making good. He is a member of

W. J. Kolb, keeper of wampum, and George E. Vaughn, collector of George E. Vaughn, collector of wampum of Idaho Tribe, have re-turned from a successful fishing trip on the lower Potomac. They were gone for ten days, and report a large

Past Great Sachems W. C. White and George E. Baxter are drilling the degree team of Mineola Tribe, No. 14, in the second and third degrees, in contemplation of work the coming Sachem John Vessey and Senior Sagamore Samuel De-Catur are mak-ing arrangements for the forthcom-ing visitation of the great chiefs to White Eagle Tribe. Something new and novel is promised in the way of entertainment, Wilson Brooks, great chief of reords of the great council of the Unit ed States, reports that to September 29 about $30,000-had been subscribed by the various States to the Improv-ed Order of Red Men Red Cross fund.

is cautioned to watch this column for the weekly visitations of the great chiefs. After tomorrow night at Red-wing Tribe there will be one to Idaho council, Degree of Pocahontas, on Friday evening, October 12.

Great Sachem Heidenheimer sires a full attendance at the various visitations, and the least we can do The Maccabees.

A movement is under way to show Mr. Gardiner some special honors as a member of the order. The month of October has been designated as the official month in the Markey Siver anniversary contest and each officer in the association is exeach officer in the association is ex-pected to produce some new business during the month, thereby starting the movement to put into the asso-ciation before the 28th day of Febru-ary, 1918, 25,000 new members. National Tent, No. 1, adopted a plan at its meeting last Monday night, to summon 100 of its members to each summon 100 of its members to each of the coming meetings, until the enpast commanders will be expected to do that part of the honors. George H. Sisemore, the record keep-er of National Tent, is the first offi-er to respond to the call for new members during officers' month, and he has his candidate and will have him initiated next Monday night. Brightwood Tent, No. 5, has summoned all its members to the meet next Tuesday night to attend to so very important matters.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Worrell, have gone to the former's father's home near Roanoke, Va., on their annual va-cation. Mr. Worrell is the very able commander at Mount Vernon tent,

Mrs. W. W. Adamson, wife of Mr. W. W. Adamson, of Mount Vernon tent, No. 4 has returned from an extended Western trip. At National tent last Monday two members were admitted by transfer cards.

Mount Vernon tent, No. 4, had a well attended meeting on Tuesday night, last, with Commander W. G. Worrell presiding. Wm. M. Newbold, a member of Na

J. H. Dempsey, of National tent, No. l, and one of the captains of the tent in the Markey silver anniversary, has returned from his vacation and is now organizing his forces for the campaign, in which he will join the members of the tent in winning for Na-tional tent the trophy in the Seventh district of which the District of Coumbia is part, and National tent has the opportunity if the membership will get busy, of not only carrying off the laurels in the role of honor, but Knights of Columbus.

A very important meeting of the finance committee of the local war fund was held Wednesday evening. Past State Deputy William P. Nor-moyle has arranged for a city-wide campaign, beginning October 12, by date.

A meeting of all the Catholic women of the city was held Friday evening at the Knights of Columbus Hall, when Mr. Normoyle outlined his plans for the campaign.

Last Friday night the Dramatic Club held the first rehearsal of its new musical comedy "Putting One Ovor." Ther are about fifteen speaking parts in this production, and most of them have been assigned, but only tentatively, it being the policy of the directing staff to shift the characters around until a harmonious cast has been acquired. Arthur McCreight and Charles R. Schoeneman, the club's musical directors, have arranged a musical score for the show that will indies and gentlemen composing dramatic club are enthusiastic booking several dates with various charitable and religious organizations in this city and nearby towns. The following members of the Dramatic Club are now members of

Uncle Sam's fighting forces: Harry Fornwald, George McDonald, Jerome McKee, John Power, John Ruddy, William Stack and George Viehman. Rehearsals of "Backfire." the three act comedy to be presented by the William C. Van Vleck, presid J. Wilmer Latimer, vice the benefit of the Aloysius Club at Dr. Martha Brewer Lyon, se Gonzaga Hall, are progressing rapidly inder the stage direction of Arthur E. pose the cast: Felix, Edward Hall; Mrs. Featherstone, Miss Charlotte Pairo; Harry, W. H. Vessels; Ethel, Miss Anna Ford; Uncle John, Arthur E. White; Saunders, S. Leo McCarthy, and Penelope Miss Mina Pairo. Several one-act plays suitable for preser tation at the local military posts are being contemplated for early produc-

Y. W. C. A.

Sunday afternoon "at homes" are to be begun at the Young Women's Christian Association today. rooms will be open from 1 to 7, and

The Officers' Club was entertained by Georgetown Review, No. 10, at the the regular monthly meetings was changed to the fourth Friday of each month. As this was the last meeting of the club year officers were elected for the ensuing year as follows: Vice president, Mrs. Mary A. Van Ness; secretary, Miss Elsie Montgomery; treasurer, Mrs. Estella V. Huntington. The members have decided to hold a bazaar in Decembers each review to have a booth. The annual raily will be held in December and all the members are urged to work for a large class initiation.

Mrs. Jenkins, commander of Brentwood Review, was present and made wood Review, was present and made a short address.

left Washington Saturday night to be present in Port Huron, Mich., Monday, October I, at the dedication of the new office building which has just been completed. This is the largest office building in the world erected by an organization solely for women and conducted by them. Plans were made for Red Cress work, after which the meeting adjourned. Refreshments were served.

Columbian Women of the George Washington University will be held next Tuesday at 4 o'clock, in the rooms of the Women's University Club, 2027 G street. The members will be received by the officers—Mrs. William C. Van Vleck, president; Mrs. I Wilmer Lettmer vice president. corresponding secretary, and Miss Anna S. Hazelton, treasurer, assisted Anna B. Hazelton, treasurer, assisted by the chairmer of committees, Mrs. Louis Maxson, Mrs. Joshua Evans, fr., Mrs. D. K. Shute, Mrs. George P. Merrill, Mrs. A. L. Kley, Mrs. John Paul Earnest and Miss Florence W. Tea will be served by Mrs. Joshua Evans, fr., chairman of the enter-tainment committee.

After the business meeting, the history of the past year of the organ-ization will be presented by Miss Ethelwyn B. Hall.

Cameras in Target Practice. A novel method is to be used at the Mineola flying school in the training of civilian aviators. It is planned to "Old Heads on Young Miss Marion Greene will sing.

Classes in Bible study and teachers' training will open October 15, taught by Miss Burrall, of the National Geographic Magazine, the Rev.
tional Geographic Magazine, the Rev.
Tarnes D. Buhrar and Mrs. Mary C.
Tarnes D. Buhrar and Mrs. Mary C.
The developed negative will indicate
The developed negative will indicate
This success or failure in inflicting the the laurels in the role of honor, but winning something worth contesting for, this tent being in the class of 600 Women's Christian Association is Scientific American.

ATTENTION! Are You Suffering from

Biliousness Constipation Bad Breath Torpid Liver Dizziness Sallow Skin

Headache

TAKE

Express Tablets

THE LAXATIVE THAT CONTAINS NO CALOMEL

Tablets, 25c

PLES DRUG STORES

Store No. 3 Store No. 4 Store No. 5

14th and U Sts. N.W. 7th and M Sts. N.W. 8th and H Sts. N.E. 7th and K Sts. N.W. 505-07 7th St. N.W.